Biography

Ramy Elmasri, Esq. has spent his entire legal career fighting on behalf of insurers and their insureds. He understands the needs of insurance carriers for high quality, effective and expedient resolution of their cases. He is rated AV® Preeminent™ Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell, has been named a Rising Star by Super Lawyers and has extensive state and federal court litigation, trial and appellate experience.

As a former insurance company claims attorney, Ramy managed a high volume caseload overseeing large exposure claims for financial institutions and national companies.

After handling claims in-house, he worked for several notable insurance defense firms and has managed the Miami litigation department of a large regional firm, until joining Clausen Miller.

Ramy strives to give each of his clients the best and most complete representation available. His practice consists of implementing cost effective strategies to resolve conflicts promptly and efficiently. His background as an insurance company claims attorney gives him a unique perspective and allows him to utilize his skills to obtain the best and quickest resolution possible for both the carriers and their insureds.

Ramy's extensive practice includes first party property, coverage, general liability, errors and omissions and professional liability. His practice includes advising international, national and state insurance carriers. Ramy has extensive experience in child care center defense, liquor liability, trucking, auto, lawyers professional liability, real estate agents professional liability, repossession agents liability, architects and engineers liability, and construction defect defense.

In his spare time, Ramy enjoys running, traveling to new places and is an avid food and wine enthusiast. He volunteers and serves on the board of directors of a local non-profit helping to provide Latino students with insurance industry summer internships.
