Biography

Will is a partner in the Chicago office. He is an experienced litigator whose practice includes commercial litigation, products liability, personal injury, professional liability and construction law. Will has successfully defended clients in diverse areas of law, including claims for wrongful death, personal injury, breach of contract, and property damage, achieving the positive resolution of cases through pretrial negotiation, mediation, summary judgment, and trial. In 2018, 2020, 2021 and 2022, Will was named to the Illinois Super Lawyers Rising Stars list. Each year, no more than 2.5 percent of the lawyers in the state are selected by the research team at Super Lawyers to receive this honor.

Will received his law degree from Washington University in St. Louis in 2009. While in law school he served as editor of the Jurisprudence Review Journal, and participated in Moot Court. In 2006 he won the Washington University Client Counseling Competition. In 2007 Will spent a semester at the University of Utrecht, The Netherlands studying international law. He also served as a clerk for the First Circuit Court of Davidson County, Tennessee.

Will received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy from Kalamazoo College in 2005. While at Kalamazoo College, Will received several awards for excellence in the field of philosophy and has given lectures both domestically and abroad.
