Biography

Kelly has a logical and streamlined approach to her national insurance coverage and litigation practice. Kelly regularly helps clients navigate the complexities of first-party insurance matters and defends design professionals against claims of professional negligence, premises liability, breach of contract, and breach of warranty.

Kelly has handled coverage issues under commercial, builders risk, inland marine, condominium, professional liability, and homeowners policies. A key portion of Kelly's practice is to advise clients on the interpretation of all risk manuscript insurance policies and builders risk coverage forms. Her experience includes analyzing legal issues involving storm damage, ordinance and law coverage, mold, product contamination, faulty workmanship and ensuing loss, and complex time element losses.

Kelly is dedicated to staying current with the latest developments in the use of technology to streamline the review, management and production of files in document intensive cases. Her practical approach to the law and her vast experience in all key phases of litigation make Kelly a valuable asset to her insurance and design professional clients.

Kelly earned her undergraduate degree from the University of Iowa in 1999 and received her Juris Doctor from DePaul University College of Law in 2002, graduating Magna Cum Laude and Order of the Coif.
