Biography

"I treat each case individually and apply a tailored, detail-oriented, fact specific, timely, problem-solving and proactive approach to ensure the best outcome."

Greg is a Partner in the firm's New York and Connecticut offices. He handles all aspects of litigation, including employment practices, premises liability, construction and automobile accidents. Throughout his experience, Greg has represents – and continues to represent and defend – a variety of different clients including, but not limited to, commercial and private property owners, private individuals, tenants, management companies, managing agents, real estate professionals, homeowners, general contractors and subcontractors as well as professionals such as engineers, architects and insurance agents and brokers. In addition, he handles coverage opinions and coverage litigation for clients. Greg is experienced with defending against intentional-tort and punitive-damages claims.

Greg received an A.A. from Montgomery College and a B.S. from the University of Maryland, College Park. Following completion of his undergraduate studies, Greg served as a Staff Assistant and as a Deputy Associate Director in the Office of Presidential Personnel at The White House. He then received his J.D. from the Touro College, Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center in 2006.

Greg is admitted to practice in New York, Connecticut and the District of Columbia as well as the United States District Courts for the Northern, Southern, Eastern and Western Districts of New York. He is a member of the Knights of Columbus, the Ukrainian Institute of America, the Brooklyn Bar Association and the Board of Governors of the Ukrainian American Bar Association, for which he also serves as the Chair of the Membership Committee. He resides in Westchester County, New York with his wife.
