Biography

Valeri focuses her practice on commercial and civil litigation, including professional liability, products liability, commercial disputes, premises liability, and personal injury matters. She has successfully defended a variety of clients, including international, national, and local companies, municipal entities, and medical and financial professionals, achieving positive resolutions of cases through pretrial negotiations, summary judgment, mediation, and trial.

Prior to joining Clausen Miller, Valeri counseled clients regarding estate, tax, and long-term care planning, as well as post-mortem estate and trust administration and litigation. Valeri also served as an Assistant Village Prosecutor in DuPage County.

Valeri concurrently earned her Juris Doctor and her Master of Business Administration from Marquette University in 2012. During law school, Valeri participated in Moot Court and interned for the Honorable Paul F. Reilly of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals. In 2010, Valeri studied abroad at Justus Liebig University Giessen in Giessen, Germany, where she studied international law.

She earned her Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from the Tippie College of Business at the University of Iowa in 2009. Valeri grew up in the northwest suburbs of Chicago.
