Kristin Esposito is a Senior Associate at Clausen Miller focusing her practice on major casualty losses, including medical/professional liability and malpractice defense, transportation and trucking defense, products liability, premises liability, hospitality defense, school district and municipal liability, and cyber-security. Kristin also assists excess and primary insurance clients by monitoring trials and providing analyses on high exposure claims. Her wealth of experience and success in trying, arbitrating, and negotiating hundreds of claims and lawsuits allows her to expertly litigate on her clients' behalf. With experience as both a Plaintiffs' attorney and Defense attorney, she has a unique perspective on how to approach a case from start to finish. Her passion and competitive spirit in the court room are great assets to all of her clients. It's all about ingenuity, efficiency, and the end result.

Kristin's competitive nature began at a very young age with a ball and a tee, and even today you can find her bunting homeruns on the kickball field or throwing a dodgeball in an old school gym. This drive is what lead her to law school and landed her in the courtroom. Kristin joined Clausen Miller armed with her vast litigation experience including, jury and bench trials, and arbitrations in the areas of medical malpractice, professional malpractice, premise liability incidents, and motor vehicle accidents. Kristin attended the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign where she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 2010. Upon graduating, Kristin attended DePaul University College of Law where she received her Juris Doctor in May of 2013.
