Biography

Melissa is an Associate in the Subrogation group. Melissa obtained a Bachelor of Arts (cum laude) in Economics and Political Science from Marist College and a Juris Doctorate (magna cum laude) from Albany Law School, where she served as an Associate Editor for the Albany Law Review. Prior to joining the firm, Melissa served as Law Clerk to the Honorable Daniel R. Lindemann in the New Jersey Superior Court, Union County. During her clerkship, Melissa served as a court-trained mediator in both the Special Civil Part and Family Part. Her experience as a mediator has provided her with the unique opportunity of working with both plaintiffs and defendants, seeing the various arguments raised by both sides of a dispute and further developing her own negotiation skills.
