Biography

Anne is managing partner of the firm's Florida offices, handling a variety of insurance law issues and disputes. Anne has more than 25 years of insurance litigation, regulatory, and management experience, attained through private law practice as well as in-house roles with insurance entities. She is passionate about measuring and continuously improving all components of her team's litigation performance, and on fully understanding and achieving the short and long-term goals of her clients.

Anne began her law career in Florida, defending workers' compensation insurance matters. She later held in-house litigation roles in Minneapolis with SFM and The Hartford, followed by litigation management and regulatory compliance roles with The Hartford and First State Management Group in Boston, and with Beazley, a global Lloyd's managing agent. Anne has extensive experience managing outside panel counsel, and has developed scorecard and dashboard systems to assist panel firms with continuous performance improvement and greater focus on business outcomes. Anne was responsible for launching and leading a statewide legal department at American Integrity Insurance, where she served as Vice President of Litigation. She is a frequent presenter on insurance law and litigation management. Anne obtained her law degree from the University of Iowa, and her master's in management from Harvard's Extension School. She also obtained a CII Award in London Market certificate, and became certified by IICRC in water damage restoration.
