Biography

Daniel Tamaroff is a Partner in the firm's Florida office focusing his practice on General Liability, First Party Property Insurance Defense, and Commercial Litigation. Daniel is located in the West Palm Beach area and has extensive litigation experience throughout South Florida, including Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties.

Prior to joining the firm, Daniel was Senior Staff Counsel for a Florida domestic insurance carrier and before that, a Partner at a large and well regarded Florida based law firm. Aside from his focus on liability and insurance defense, he has also represented clients in state and federal litigation involving breach of contract, negligence, and wrongful death, the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA), intellectual property litigation and transactional matters.

Prior to moving to Florida, Daniel was an associate attorney with a boutique law firm in San Antonio, Texas. He gained experience in representing clients in Texas state and federal courts in multimillion dollar construction defect, first-party claims, product liability and tort litigation. He also handled the majority of the appellate practice, including petitions for writ of mandamus and petitions for review filed with Texas Courts of Appeal and the Supreme Court of Texas.

Daniel also has broad experience with insurance law, including performing coverage reviews and drafting coverage opinions for matters involving commercial package, homeowner's, professional, commercial/business automobile, personal automobile and farm and ranch policies.
