Biography

Before joining Clausen Miller, Grace gained extensive state and federal litigation experience working on general civil, personal injury and §1983 claims, as well as related insurance coverage issues. She has practiced in all 5 boroughs of New York, and in both the Eastern and Southern District of New York. During her time clerking for the Honorable Justice Parker at the Alabama Supreme Court, she learned to look at cases from a Judge's perspective, which has allowed her to write and advocate for her clients with greater proficiency.

Grace graduated from the University of Toronto with Honors Bachelor of Arts. She then obtained her Juris Doctorate from Liberty University School of Law, where she was the sole recipient of the Trial Advocacy Award for Outstanding Achievement in Trial Advocacy. In her capacity as research assistant, together with her professors, she published three law review articles on various topics. Most notably, one of which was published in the coveted Fletcher Forum of World Affairs Law Journal.

Grace has lived in various parts of the world. She spent her childhood in Mainland China, then went on to study in New Zealand, Canada, and the U.S. She is fluent in English and Mandarin, and has a rudimentary understanding of Arabic and Korean.
