Biography

KeiErica Baker is a Senior Associate in our Tampa office. KeiErica concentrates her practice on first-party property disputes, representing both admitted and surplus lines insurance carriers throughout the state of Florida. She also has experience in third-party coverage matters. KeiErica began her legal career as an assistant public defender, where she gained invaluable trial experience, handling over 30 nonjury and jury trials. Prior to joining Clausen Miller, KeiErica was a senior associate at a national insurance defense law firm where she represented insurance carriers in first and third-party coverage matters.

KeiErica, a native of Tampa, received her bachelor's degree from the University of South Florida. She received her Juris Doctor from Western Michigan University Cooley Law School. During law school, she was a member of the Moot Court and Mock Trial Boards, and interned for the Honorable Lawrence Lefler of the 13th Judicial Circuit, the Federal Public Defender's Office and a private criminal defense firm. Additionally, she was awarded the Leadership Achievement Award and the Distinguished Student Award.
