Biography

Rosalba Gleijeses is an Associate in the New York office. Her practice includes personal injury, premises liability, product liability, general negligence matters, motor-vehicle and commercial trucking matters. Rosalba has experience in both the public and private practice. She has represented clients across a wide range of legal issues and is adept at handling a high-volume of cases. Prior to joining Clausen Miller, Rosalba worked as an Associate at a New York City-based defense law firm, where she represented a range of clients against negligence and other tort claims. Rosalba is a member of the New York City Bar Association's Domestic Violence Committee.

Rosalba graduated from the George Washington University in 2015, where she earned a B.A. in International Security Policy and Philosophy. She graduated from John Marshall Law School in 2018, and just joined the firm since 2022. While in law school, Rosalba worked at John Marshall's International Human Rights Clinic, focusing on asylum cases for Syrian refugees.
