Biography

Analiese S. Danner is an associate at Clausen Miller P.C.'s Mission Viejo, CA office. Prior to joining Clausen, Analiese has represented plaintiffs pursuant to the Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act, California's lemon law, and has also defended clients in various tort and contract disputes at a business litigation firm in Newport Beach.

Analiese is licensed to practice law in the state of California and is a member of the Orange County Bar Association. She holds a B.A. from the University of Hawaii, and attended law school at Santa Clara University. While in law school, she interned at the Office of the City Attorney and the San Jose County Superior Court, and also participated in two legal clinics, which led her to successfully present a case before the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights in Washington, D.C. Outside of the office, she enjoys being active and spending time with her family.
